for 1970-71*

The 1970-71 Cleveland Indians is a team of the future. Only two boys will graduate this year which will leave a solid core of young players for next season.

Despite the 3-16 record, this season was a success because of the valuable experience gained.

The Senior Class

Combs, Secretary; Gail Arrington, Treasurer.

The Senior Year is the most important educational milestone for Cleveland students. They have studied books, played sports, and enjoyed recreation. As the year comes to a close, the Seniors feel a little triumphant, and a little sorrowful. They realize that one chapter of their life has ended, and that another one will begin.
